To Whom It May Concern,

Joy Degenhart is running for the judicial seat of Texas' 388th District Court in the March 2024 Texas Primary. When elected, Joy will bring consistency, impartiality and integrity back to the Court that serves many El Paso families.

The 388th District Court handles cases of family law pertaining to divorce, child custody, and protective orders. Often one or both parties come to the court at a deeply vulnerable moment in their lives and deserve to be served with respect, impartiality, and justice according to the laws of Texas.

Joy has practiced family law in El Paso for the past seven years and has extensive experience working vigorously to protect domestic violence victims, secure adequate support for in-need parents, and protect the visitation rights of loving parents. She has observed firsthand the pain, distress, and damage a biased and irrational ruling can have on the lives of real people, fellow parents and El Pasoans.

Joy chose to run for this seat in order to serve our community by restoring respect and professionalism to Texas' 388th District Court.

Sincerely,

The Joy Degenhart Campaign
